The Destinations Council represents over 425 U.S. Travel Association destination marketing organizations (DMO) and convention and visitors bureau members whose purpose is to enhance the effectiveness of DMO professionals through DMO-specific research initiatives, mentorship, professional development opportunities, and thought leadership. Gain networking access and brand exposure to Destinations Council board members through sponsorship of a meal or break for the council’s December 2022 meeting.

Composed of theme parks, museums, shopping centers, zoos and aquariums, historical landmarks, national parks, sports venues, theater and entertainment venues, sightseeing tours and more, the National Council of Attractions and Experiences works to enhance the effectiveness of these sectors through relevant research and tools, networking opportunities and thought leadership. Network with NCAE’s board of advisors and put your brand front and center through sponsorship of a meal or break for the council’s June 2022 meeting at IPW in Orlando or November 2022 meeting in a location TBD.

Representing all 50 states, the five U.S. Territories and the District of Columbia, the National Council of State Tourism Directors leverages the collective strength of state tourism offices to provide leadership and a forum for information sharing and education on issues impacting tourism at the state level. Interact with this select group of travel leaders during their meetings 3 times a year.
