an unparalleled destination

The ultimate playground for hikers, shoppers, sports lovers, and sightseers alike, San Diego is blessed with perfect weather and packed with 18 vibrant communities from the Gaslamp Quarter and Little Italy, to La Jolla, Carlsbad, and Coronado. As California’s second-largest city, it serves up everything from colorful flower fields and rolling vineyards to sun-kissed desserts and dramatic coastal cliffs. Simply put, San Diego brings the fun and delivers unforgettable programs and effortlessly relaxing escapes.

A Little Something Fun...

Known as the birthplace of California, San Diego was established in 1769. The first of 21 missions originated here in our city and eventually stretched all the way up the coast!

Puesto

The Adler and Lombrozo brothers built Puesto from their own story—first-gen Mexican Americans, food-obsessed, raised on tradition and tacos. A love letter to the flavors they grew up with, flipped with Mexico City energy and a Southern California spirit. Every dish pulls from somewhere: grandma's kitchen or a street cart in CDMX. Made by food people. For food people.
