

WEEKLY CORONAVIRUS IMPACT ON TRAVEL EXPENDITURES IN THE U.S.

(APRIL 8, 2020 UPDATE)

NATIONAL FINDINGS

Travel spending in the U.S. fell once again in the week ending April 4th as non-essential travel has plummeted over the past month.

National weekly travel spending dropped to just $3.3 billion last week. This is down from $19.8 billion during the first week of March.

The week ending April 4th suffered a $18.6 billion loss in travel spending. This is an 85% drop from last year's levels, marking a continued decline in the travel economy as most of the country implements various lockdown measures.

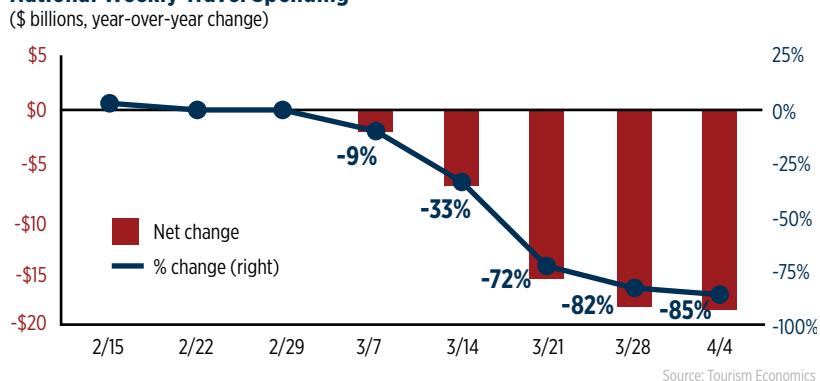

With now five weeks of evident COVID-19 impact, the U.S. travel economy has lost $60.8 billion. More than $36 billion (60%) of these losses have been realized in the past two weeks.

In just the week ending April 4th, travel spending registered $18.6 billion lower than the same week a year ago.

About the U.S. Travel Association

The U.S. Travel Association is the national, non-profit organization representing all components of the travel industry that generates $2.6 trillion in economic output. It is the voice for the collective interests of the U.S. travel industry and the association's 1,350 member organizations. U.S. Travel's mission is to promote and facilitate increased travel to and within the United States. For more information, visit www.ustravel.org.

About Tourism Economics

Tourism Economics is an Oxford Economics company with a singular objective: combine an understanding of the travel sector with proven economic tools to answer the most important questions facing our clients. More than 500 companies, associations, and destination work with Tourism Economics every year as a research partner. We bring decades of experience to every engagement to help our clients make better marketing, investment, and policy decisions.

The U.S. Travel Association and Tourism Economics wish to thank the following organizations for their significant contributions:

Airline Data Inc has been considered the Gold Standard for supplying quality U.S. commercial airline data for over 30 years. Our online tool, The Hub, delivers detailed airline schedules, leakage, and full passenger itinerary data on one platform – all at cost-effective rates. Clients agree that our proprietary reconciliation process instills a high level of confidence in understanding market dynamics that are not found in data provided by other vendors.

STR provides premium data benchmarking, analytics and marketplace insights for global hospitality sectors. We deliver data that is confidential, accurate and actionable, and our comprehensive solutions empower our clients to strategize and compete within their markets.
